

Enclosure C

SECRET SECURITY INFORMATION

Page 1 of 2

Estimate of Actual Strength of the 26th Central Automobile Repair Shop
in DVOV (4950N-2400E)

50X1

SECRET SECURITY INFORMATION

SECRET SECURITY INFORMATION

Page 2 of 2

Enclosure C

Estimate of Actual Strength of the
26th Central Automobile Repair Shop in LV0V (4950N-2400E)LEGEND

CO of 26th was a Col.

Political Officer, a Lt. Col., had:

Deputy, a Maj.
 Propaganda Officer, a Capt.
 Komsomol Officer, a Lt.

Chief Engineer Officer, a Lt. Col., had:

Engineer Officer, a Capt.
 3-5 civilian draftsmen

Chief Mechanic, a Maj., had:

5 civilian laborers

He was in charge of heating, water supply, electricity and condition of factories.

Technical Supply Chief, a Lt. Col., had:

Technical Supply Officer, a Capt.
 General Supply Officer, a Capt.
 Administrative Officer, a Capt.
 Raw Material Depot, manned by 10 civilians
 Spare Parts Depot, manned by 10 civilians
 Production Officer, a Maj., had 5-10 civilian aides and 7 workshops shown on the sketch.
 Finance Officer, a Maj., had 2 Lts. as aides and 3-5 civilian accountants.
 Officer in charge of Reception of Vehicles, a Capt., had 2 civilian clerks.
 Plans Officer, a Maj., had 2 civilian clerks
 Technical Control Officer, a Maj., had one civilian engineer
 Medical Officer, had 2 Feldshers (medical assistants),
 1 female nurse, 2 civilian orderlies.
 The Shop had a Trans. Plat. This platoon had about 40 SIS trucks, with a T/O of 1 Officer, a Capt., and 50 male civilian drivers.

SECRET SECURITY INFORMATION